3. COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course we will seek to understand the concepts of nation and identity in modern France via its cultural, political, and intellectual history. We will focus on key ideas developed by some of the most influential modern French thinkers. Each week we will consider a handful of central ideas, contained in short slogans or quotations, and developed more fully in short accompanying texts. During class we will discuss the ideas developed in these texts, attempting to relate them to the broader questions that are guiding us, and also to relate them to our own experience in contemporary Paris.

4. COURSE MATERIALS

Course Reader (hereafter [CR])

5. COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Students will become active readers of historical and philosophical texts. Through active reading, students will develop interpretive and critical thinking skills to analyze primary and secondary source works from multiple perspectives (philosophical, historical, political, scientific).
- > Students will gain an understanding of the complicated dynamics of history, and of the enduring relevance of the past to contemporary society.
- > Students will come to appreciate the place of France in the broader world, its contributions to global culture, and the ways in which the outside world in turn initially helped to shape these contributions.
- Students will be encouraged, particularly in our excursions, to 'read' Paris as a living monument to the ideas we explore in class.

6. PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites for this course, but some knowledge of French history is recommended.

7. METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

Instruction will consist of lectures on history, theoretical concepts, and methodology; guest lectures from specialists; visits to places like the Louvre and the Gallery of Comparative Anatomy; group presentations; and class discussions on course topics.

8. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Lectures & Site Visits

Class meetings will last 3.0 hours per session. Class time will be divided between lectures, student presentations, and group discussions in which active student participation is required. Students are expected to read and view the material assigned for each class and be prepared to discuss the material.

In addition, students will meet for periodic site visits:

- Week 1: Paris Mosque
- Week 3: Galerie d'Anatomie Comparée
- Week 4: The Louvre

Written Assessment - Weekly Quizzes

Quizzes aim at evaluating the students' understanding of the lectures, readings, visits, and class discussions as well as the students' development of their critical thinking skills. All quiz questions will require that students respond with a short paragraph by using specific language and relevant references to appropriate course lectures/materials.

Written Assessment - Argumentative Essay

Critical thought and analytical writing are fundamental components of the course and the final grade. Students will submit one 6-8 page paper, relating this analysis to the assigned course material (books, articles, chapters, etc.). Students will receive a list of approved topics.

Essays will be 6-8 pages long and will include a title, introduction, main body, and conclusion. Essays must be typed, double-spaced in Times New Roman (12pt), and 2.5cm/1-inch margins on all four sides. The essay will be submitted in class on the date specified on the course schedule. No late submissions will be accepted.

Group Presentation

The group presentation aims at evaluating students' ability to collaborate and construct an effective oral presentation using visual supports (e.g., powerpoint) on a topic related to the course material. It requires that students demonstrate their knowledge of course material by applying the course concepts to an assigned text.

Final Exam

The final exam aims at evaluating the students' understanding of the readings and class discussions as well as the students' development of their critical thinking skills. The final exam will be comprehensive and will cover all course contents. The final exam will consist of short answer and short essay-type questions, which will require students to demonstrate their knowledge of specific terms, concepts, and historical landmarks, and to compose their ideas in one or more paragraphs addressing specific topics related to course contents.

Class Participation and Attendance

Attendance and active participation are required. Students are expected to do the readings and/or viewings assigned for each class meeting beforehand, and to participate actively in class discussions.

9. ASSESSMENT AND GRADING CRITERIA

The course will be graded on a 100-point scale, and the final grade will be determined as follows:

\triangleright	Class Participation	15%
\triangleright	Quizzes (4)	20%
\triangleright	Group Presentation	15%
\triangleright	Paper	20%
	Final Exam	30%

The numerical average will correspond to the following degrees of competence:

90 – 100 Outstanding degree of competence 80 – 89 Good degree of competence 70 – 79 Adequate degree of competence 60 – 69 Basic degree of competence

0 – 59 Failure to demonstrate a basic degree of competence

10. ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance is expected in all course meetings, course-related activities and visits/excursions on UCEAP programs.

- Plan to arrive on time to all course meetings. You will be marked absent if you are not present at the start of class. You will also be marked absent if you skip out early.
- > Roll will be called as a matter of course. The class register is the official record of student attendance.
- Absences will adversely affect course participation grades. You will be required to meet with the Academic Coordinator if it is determined that your lack of participation in a course has a negative impact on the other students in the class (e.g., group presentations). When appropriate, the Academic Coordinator will confer with UCEAP on disciplinary measures to take, including probation and dismissal from the program.
- No MAKE-UPS for missed work: if a student is absent on a day when there is some form of assessment (quiz, presentation, exam, etc.), there will be no make-ups.
- NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS: due to the intensive nature of the program, no late assignments will be accepted and no extensions will be given.
- No guests are allowed to participate in any UCEAP courses or site visits.
